Day 04: Brahmaputra Cruise - Manas National Park

Cross the Brahmaputra and drive to the Manas National Park bordering Bhutan and check into a forest lodge. The Tiger population is well into recovery in this 'Project Tiger' reserve. Take a boat ride in the afternoon down the Manas river to view the rich birdlife of the area.

Day 05: Manas National Park - Brahmaputra Cruise

A full day of jungle activities such as elephant back safari to see the various animals in the park with chances of catching a glimpse of the Royal Bengal Tiger, clouded leopard or other such rarity. Bird highlight could include the Bengal Florican or the great Hornbill. Drive back to rejoin the vessel at Tarabari Ghat and cruise until nightfall.

Day 06: Brahmaputra Cruise

This day is spent on the river with a chance to enjoy the rich birdlife and look out for the Gangetic Dolphin. The Garo hills, once the abode of fearsome headhunters rise on the southern bank.

Day 07: Brahmaputra Cruise – Guwahati

Break the cruise with a pause at an isolated village exploring it on foot; visiting homes and mingling with the village folks. Evening, reach Guwahati mooring at the foot of a pretty temple on the opposite bank in order to escape the city's bustle.

Day 08: Guwahati – Departure

Visit the midstream Peacock island by country boat to see the Umananda temple and then have time to shop or stroll in Guwahati before connecting your flight to your onward destination.
